

Lesson Summary

No.	Unit Name	Unit Description
1	It's so Nice to Meet You!	This first class is designed to provide you with an introduction to studying over the Internet and to give us the chance to get to know one another; plus, you'll start learning how to introduce yourself in Hebrew and get a head start on learning the Hebrew Aleph Bet.
2	I am a Hebrew Student	In this unit, you'll start learning some of the introductory rules of Hebrew grammar and we'll get more into the skills involved with initiating a conversation.
3	Hi. I'm From America. Where Are You From?	This unit will continue to expand your Hebrew vocabulary with the aim of strengthening your ability to converse. At the end of this unit, you should be able to conduct a basic Hebrew conversation. You'll also be taught how to answer typical questions that might arise in day to day interactions. By the end of this unit, you and your teacher will be engaged in your first interactive dialogue.
4	I, You, We, Them...	In Hebrew, there are ten different personal pronouns. In this unit, you'll get to know all of them, along with their different uses.
5	What's This? Who's There?	In Hebrew, every object is assigned a gender, either male or female. In this unit, you'll learn how to identify an object as either male or female and how to describe them in plural form. As always, we'll continue working on expanding your vocabulary.
6	Learning Hebrew in Hebrew	The only way to really reach a level where you are comfortable with Hebrew is to immerse yourself in it. This unit will provide you with the vocabulary words and terms we need so that all future classes will be conducted only in Hebrew. So say goodbye to English during our classes. It's all Hebrew from here!
7	The Hebrew Verb	In Hebrew, unlike English and many other languages, verbs are organized into various categories. This unit will teach you how to identify the different verb categories. After this unit, you will be able to conjugate every verb in Hebrew and to pronounce them correctly.
8	Please, Thank You, Excuse Me	In this unit, you'll learn how to be polite in Hebrew and how to handle yourself in various situations that require politeness, like ordering a cup of coffee. Even better, we'll teach you how to apologize when you forget to pay for it 😊.
9	Numbers	In this unit, you will learn the numbers 0 through 10; you will also learn how to say your phone number in Hebrew and how to request a phone number from information.

10	The Clock	This unit will familiarize you with how to say what time it is in Hebrew and how to plan your daily schedule based on the hours of the day.
11	Is There or Is There Not?	Here we will learn the words pertaining to existence of items and the special sentence structures that result from using these words. We'll have some fun practicing using some typical restaurant interactions.
12	Does Anybody Have a Question?	We'll sum up all the questioning words that we've learned so far: Who, What, Where, Where From, Where to, When, Why. We'll head off for an "evening at the movies" in Hebrew.
13	Yesterday, Today, Tomorrow and the Days of the Week	We'll learn how to count in Hebrew, and through dialogue, we'll get to know the days of the week.
14	My Family	We'll get to know the terms that will allow us to identify and describe the members of our family.
15	Nicknames	Here we'll learn the grammatical forms in Hebrew for the phrases "I have" and "You can call me___". This unit is largely grammatical in nature, covering possession issues and will allow for the inclusion and practice of all the vocabulary words that were learned to date.
16	My Beautiful Home	During this unit, we'll learn about the items and appliances we have in our homes and start getting acquainted with Hebrew adjectives and their uses (Yes, Hebrew can be a complex language!).
17	Just a Bit More Hebrew Grammar	In this unit we'll practice adapting words for the plural and singular because without perfecting this skill, Hebrew is likely to sound far less pleasant
18	Do I Know You?	This unit will deal with some grammar issues of basic structural words that are unique to Hebrew but are critical in building sentences and conversing.
19	Let's Party!	In this unit we'll learn a selection of words that would be used at a Hebrew-speaking party. We'll also learn some words that would be used when getting to the party, with direction words, like: above, below, adjacent to, etc.
